Course: Feasibility of International Trade

Course Description:

The course Feasibility of International Trade examines the critical steps and decisions needed to determine the feasibility of potential international trade initiatives. Market research, analysis of organizational readiness, cost analysis, and risk analysis are all required in order to decide if a concept fits with a company’s strategic direction and improves the bottom line of an organization. Risk analysis then leads to the development of strategies to mitigate identified risks.

The Feasibility of International Trade course is a key course in Edition 7.2 of the FITTskills Program, which has been designed for the independent self-directed learner who is an international trade practitioner with a minimum of two to five years of experience. The FITTskills Program has been developed so that you as a practitioner can ensure you have all the competencies required to take advantage of international trade opportunities.

Modules in this Course:

- SITUATIONAL ANALYSIS: Determining Current State and Opportunities for Growth
- COST AND PRICING ANALYSIS: Analyzing the Numbers
- RISK ANALYSIS AND MANAGEMENT: Analyzing and Mitigating Risks in International Trade

Pre-Requisites:

- There are no recommended courses prior to the Feasibility of International Trade course. The Feasibility of International Trade course is the foundational course in the FITTskills Program.
- The Feasibility of International Trade course assumes you have the necessary basic business and trade knowledge and skills needed for domestic trade, as these fundamentals are not covered in the FITTskills Program.
Course Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, you will be able to:

1. Conduct thorough research and analysis to determine the viability of a prospective international initiative and its possible components.
   a. Assess organizational readiness for new international trade initiatives.
   b. Screen possible target markets to determine most viable markets for designated initiatives.
   c. Conduct market research for identified potential import and/or export ventures.
2. Conduct cost benefit analysis for importing and/or exporting potential products and services.
3. Identify and analyze potential risks of international initiatives.
4. Determine if the potential gains and opportunities of the venture outweigh the possible risks.
5. Develop and implement strategies and activities to monitor and manage identified risks.

When you begin the course, you will find there are also detailed learning outcomes for each of the three modules in the course.

Schedule:

You can begin any time. Learners must complete the course within three months of registration.

Course Format:

You have three months to work through the self-led course and complete the final assessment at your own pace. You’ll receive your topic-specific textbook in eBook format. At the end of your learning, you can write the summative exam for the course.

Registration in this course provides you with access to additional learning resources, such as guiding notes, case studies, sample exam questions and the answers to the exercises in the textbook. These additional resources provide you with an opportunity to apply your learning and verify your progress. Although access to these resources are provided, the only requirement to complete the course is successfully passing the exam.
Learning resources:

The course includes extensive content about the feasibility of international trade as an integral part of international trade. It also offers:

- An initial checklist for you to ‘Reflect on Your Experience’ to help you decide which sections you need to spend most time on, and where you may have previous learning
- Case examples that demonstrate innovative and good business practices, global examples and lessons from the field
- Many sample documents to illustrate requirements and good practice within the global value chain
- Sections that help you to consolidate and apply your learning at the end of each unit of each module
- Opportunities for extended learning at the end of each unit of each module to broaden the scope of your application, and to help you relate the learning to specific situations
- A list of ‘Recommended Resources’ for additional reading and learning on the topics

Assignments & Formative Assessments:

In addition to the sections in each unit to help you apply your learning and to extend your learning to various situations, there is a Final Check at the end of each module. This multiple-choice quiz for the module provides sample questions and answers for you to prepare for the summative exam. These questions have also been provided as an interactive quiz on the learning platform.

Summative/Final Assessment:

Once you are ready, you can write the course evaluation. This is a standardized open-book exam consisting of 45 multiple choice questions. Learners must complete this exam online within three hours. You can write your exam at any time as long as it is done before the deadline.

To access the examination:

1. Go to www.FITTforTrade.com
2. Under SIGN IN, enter your FITT ID and password
3. Click the FITT Students menu (left-vertical menu), then Online Exam Centre and then Login now to begin your exam—this will redirect you to the online exam center

For the course Feasibility of International Trade, you have the option of completing a course project instead of the exam. The project for this course involves various steps to develop and submit an International Research Plan. To obtain more information, reference the document
